THIS IS CERTAINLY AN ERA OF PROSPERITY

We are proving that the tariff revision is a benefit to the consumer.

We are saving the men of Salt Lake City anywhere from ten to fifteen dollars on every suit or overcoat they buy from us. The manufacturers we buy from had large stocks of piece goods on hand at the time the tariff was taken off of wool, and were anxious to unload.

SO WE WERE JOHNNY ON THE SPOT. We bought 200 Suits and Overcoats from Stern, Mayer & Co. (the house we made famous), values $25 to $40, so we can sell them and make a small profit on them. We also bought 150 Suits and Overcoats from Sturm, Schiller Co., the same values. We have the distinction of being the only retail store in America having permission from the manufacturer to sell all L system suits and overcoats for one price, $20.

the Sait Lake theater next Thesday and Wednesday. The new play tells a pow-arful story of a husband's daringly novel solution of the problem created by his wife's love for another man and gives every actor in the play a star part. It has taken its place among the notable dramatic successes of the day.

There will be only two more performances of "Genessee of the Hills" at the Utah theater this week and local theatergoers should not miss the last opportunities to see this magnificent production of the play dramatized from the famous novel, "Told in the Hills," written by Marah Ellis Ryan, Willard Mack, Marjorte Rambeau and associate players are giving a superb presentation of the interesting drama, and it has drawn large audiences throughout the week, Next week "Kindling" will be the attraction.

At the Orpheum this week there are a couple of clever young Englishmen who entertain splendidly with a routine of dancing, piano playing and singing. The notable feature of their act is their simultaneous dancing and piano playing. They alternate between the steps and the piano, but there is no stop for relays. The act is brought to an effective close with an acrobatic dance. This week's bill, which is a great laughing hit, closes with tonight's presentation.

Highland Lassies are a sensation at the new Pantages theater this week. The lassies have an act that is real from start to finish. Their wardrobe is most beautiful and elaborate. Three sets of scenery are used. There is a stream, the old bridge, the mountains, the waterfails and the lighted castle on the hillsides to give the act an air of grandeur at the very beginning.
